Why do you think it's called BREEDING STOCK?

Quote from Hampshire breeder, Jim Twidell, Princeton, Ill. — 32 Years Ago

1. It's called BREEDING stock because it's supposed to breed.
2. It's called BREEDING stock because it's supposed to generate better animals in the next generation.
3. It's called BREEDING stock because it's supposed to be genetically clean enough to start someone's new herd.
